HIGHEST QUALITY OEM PRODUCTS.

No inferior copies or designs from questionable sources. Only reliable, proven lashing gear designed by Allset and MacGregor, manufactured and tested to meet all relevant industry performance and security requirements and standards.

A COMPLETE PRODUCT LINE FROM A SINGLE SOURCE.

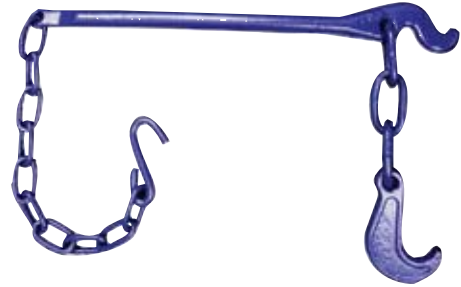

Over 600 quality lashing products from a single dedicated distributor focused on exceptional customer service. Everything you need to confidently secure container and ro-ro marine cargo.

"Cargotec have enjoyed the business relationship for container lashing equipment sales with Buffers USA for more than 21 years, starting with the AllSet brand in 1991 and since 2012 also with the MacGregor range of container lashing equipment. We are proud to be represented in the US by Buffers USA and have always felt confident in their professional support and service given to our container lashing customers throughout middle and North America"

Marcus Ejdersten, Cargotec, Sales Manager, Lashings.
